Mr Bridge's update

Presentation focus this week!
For the last few weeks of term we will be celebrating pupils efforts with handwriting and presentation by showing fantastic examples of improvement in celebration assembly. The children have done a fantastic job of this and we will now be sharing some specific examples - parents of these children will be invited in also.

Year 6 residential
Well Done to our Year 6s for a fantastic residential. It is great to hear what a good time they had and that their behaviour was celebrated by members of the public!

Parents coming into school
We have recently seen an increase in parents coming into school at the start of the school day. Please can we ensure that children are left at the door unless in exceptional circumstances. Teachers will be more than happy to come out and speak to you should you have something you wish to discuss with them.

Job Opportunities

We currently have two TA positions available within our schools thanks to expansions in pupil numbers. Please see the adverts attached. Please also share these widely to enable the best possible pool of candidates.

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

PRIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

NO MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

TALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

SPEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
